Tax Time! Save Some and Spend Some with the CFPB

Now saving your tax refund is as easy as spending it. Ask your tax preparer to automatically deposit your tax refund into a savings account and your checking account. Or use some of your refund to buy U.S. savings bonds. Automatically saving some of your tax refund today could help you avoid financial potholes down the road. Use your income tax refund to help you save:

- For a rainy day
- For a new car
- For the down payment on a home
- For education

The choice is yours. You choose where to save and how much.

It's easy. If you have your savings account and routing numbers, your tax preparer could automatically deposit of your refund into savings. The rest of your refund could be deposited into your checking account or mailed to you.

It's free. There are no fees or charges for splitting your tax refund into different accounts.

It's fast. Completing the extra form takes only a couple of minutes. When you have your refund direct deposited into your account, it arrives in as little as 10 days.

Available to everyone. Don't have a bank account? Ask your tax preparer to use your refund to buy U.S. savings bonds. Series I savings bonds are very low-risk and earn interest for up to 30 years. But they are designed for long term savers. You must hold the bonds for at least a year. Beyond the first year, you can hold the bonds as long as you want, and cash them in at any bank. If you cash the bonds during the first five years, you will lose three months of interest. After five years there is no penalty.
